CONDITIONAL VOTER REGISTRATION

Eligible County of San Diego residents who missed the voter registration deadline of October 19th still have an option to vote. Under the California Election Law, Conditional Voter Registration \(CVR\) allows a prospective voter to register conditionally and cast a provisional ballot during the 14 days prior to and on Election Day, and they are encouraged to go to an ROV approved location to do so. For those who are interested in registering to vote, please contact the ROV.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. If I place a stamp on my ballot does it go back 1st class mail? And if I don't put a stamp does it get returned 3rd class mail?

Answer: Regardless of whether a ballot has 1st class stamp or no stamp, all ballots are treated the same as with a 1st class stamp. No stamp is needed to return your ballot.

2. If someone's signature does not match their ballot does it not get counted?

Answer: If it's challenged for signature mismatch, it does not get counted. But the ROV will reach out to the voter if it does not match for further evaluation.

3. How can I verify what signature I have on file or update my signature on file with the ROV?

Answer: Voters can call the ROV at 858-565-5800 to receive information on the signature they have on file and how they can update their signature.
